CALVIN HOUSE MURDERED
NEAR RICE'S LANDING.

Well Known Hotel Man Found Early Today With Skull Crushed—Six Suspects Arrested.

Special to The Courier.

RICE'S LANDING, Oct. 19.—Calvin House, a widely known hotel man, was brutally murdered late last night, or at an early hour this morning. Newton Phillips, a negro night watchman, who reported the finding of the body early today is held with five foreigners as suspects. Phillips, it is stated, tells conflicting stories of finding House.

As soon as the negro reported the finding of House, friends started to remove the injured man to his home, the House Hotel, at this place. House died before the hotel was reached.

The dead hotel keeper made a trip to Brownsville yesterday on some business matters. He frequently did his banking there and when he started for his home yesterday it was known that he had a large sum of money on his person. This money, or most of it, it was stated at noon, was not found on the body.

House died in his wife's arms who had been hastily summoned to the scene where her husband was found. Phillips said that after finding House he attempted to drug him home, but the place where the body was found after the negro gave the alarm indicates that House was dragged in the opposite direction from his home.

Further investigation by the police showed that besides a crushed skull both of House's arms were broken and the body was a mass of bruises. It was learned that after alighting from the Brownsville train House went to the house of Frank Harman, a miner. Nothing is known of his movements following. Besides Phillips Harman and his wife, Frank Friedman, "Andy" Daki and John Ovat were arrested.

The murdered man had a wide acquaintance throughout Greene and Fayette counties. He was an old resident and was a man of high standing.

SILK MILL PROMOTER ARRIVES
TO GIVE HIS DETAILED PLANS.

Taken in Charge This Morning by Reception Committee and Will Meet Chamber of Commerce Directors.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR BANQUET

Prospects Are That Fully 200 Business Men Will Attend—Some Information Given Out Second Hand Has Been Misleading.

D. George Dery, the silk manufacturer, arrived in Connellsville this morning, accompanied by Ferdinand Muckley, and is today engaged in seeing the town and its surroundings. Everything today was carried out according to the schedule. The visitors were met at the Pennsylvania depot and escorted to the Hotel Royal. After breakfast there, the tour over Connellsville and vicinity was begun. Three automobiles were supplied for the occasion. Mr. Dery, accompanied by J. B. Hogg, E. T. Norton and Rockwell Marietta, occupied the first car, which was driven by W. H. Marietta. William D. Sherick drove the second car and carried Col. J. M. Reid, E. K. Dick, E. B. Floto and P. Bufano. The third and last car was that owned and driven by Charles Work. Ferdinand Muckley occupied this car, accompanied by Worth Kilpatrick, F. E. Markell and Robert Norris.

The party was first driven to the proposed site along South Pittsburgh street, an option upon which has been secured from Mrs. Jean H. Davidson. After looking over the ground carefully the party then drove to Morrell, where J. A. Guller has a site he offers free. The trip was continued to Dunbar. The Leisenrings, Trotter, Vanderbilt and Dunbar will be seen this morning, and Scotland also, if sufficient time remains.

The visitors were guests of the committee at dinner at the Royal this afternoon, after which the Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce went into a session in its rooms to hear Mr. Dery's proposition in full. After this session is concluded the party will visit the Industrial Fair in the Armory.

Tonight the "Get Busy" banquet will be held, beginning promptly at 7:30 o'clock. The speakers tonight may not be known until the banquet is on. Attorney E. C. Higbee was to have delivered an address, but he was called to Harrisburg yesterday afternoon and will not get back in time to attend.

Prospects are that fully 200 will be present this evening and perhaps more. Acceptances have been coming in all morning to Secretary J. Fred Kurtz. The meeting is purely for the purpose of hearing from Mr. Dery and no effort will be made to take up a subscription. Speaking of the matter today President Kilpatrick expressed the opinion that every business man owes it to the town to be present and have the matter explained thoroughly.

There has been a good bit of information secured second-hand about the matter. Mr. Kilpatrick said, and some of it was entirely misleading.

NICK CARTER DID A MARATHON ONCE.

So Burgess Gave Him a Chance to Do Another Getting Out of Town.

M'ELHANEY HAD CAR FEVER

He Wanted to Ride All Night and Only Got Off When Police Dragged Him Away—Wheeler Lad Does Wild West Stunt.

Nick Carter, not the hero of the dime novel, but a dusky lured negro, was landed by the police at an early hour this morning and appeared before Burgess Evans garbed in two overcoats and a cap bearing the emblem: "Chief, F. D."

Nick said he had been to Beaver Falls with a football team from Harrisburg and was left behind when the others departed.

"Can you run?" asked the Burgess. "I ran in a Marathon race once," was the reply.

"Well, you hike for the borough limits. You have 15 minutes to make it."

When last seen Nick was sauntering up Main street.

Alex McElhaney of South Connellsville monopolized a South Side street car last night. He made several round trips and refused to get off so the officers nabbed him. He asked of Burgess he had lost the change to a five dollar bill, but went back to the cells for 48 hours.

Wendley Beer of Wheeler looked as though he had taken a series of mud baths with his clothes on. He was arrested in Greenwood by Policeman Joe O'Bryon. Beer came riding to town on horse back. The foggy weather went to his head and he tumbled from the saddle into a mud-bank. Policeman O'Bryon found him floundering there like a turtle and took him in tow. He got 18 hours, to brush his clothes off.

STRIKERS LECTURED
BY BURGESS EVANS

Warned Against Practices It Is Alleged They Have Recently Been Pursuing.

Burgess J. L. Evans took occasion to lecture two Baltimore & Ohio strikers last evening in police court. They were James Quinn and L. J. Finnagin. The two were called into court and warned against the tactics it is alleged they have been pursuing.

Quinn, it is claimed, has been in the habit of stopping strangers who arrive in town and warning them against going to work at the railroad shops here. In many cases the persons so addressed have no idea of doing such work, and complaints began to drift into the Burgess' office.

Finnagin denied doing any of the flagging but admitted he had been with Quinn on several occasions when he was doing picket duty. They were warned to cut out that work in the future.

"I will not stand for such tactics longer," said the Burgess. "There have been too many complaints about your methods. Cut it out."

Mohrner was Polish and was 45 years old. He has a wife residing in the old country. After its removal from the mines the body was removed to General Director J. E. Shinn's room and prepared for burial.

MYERS' TRIP TO THE STORE
STARTED A KIDNAPING STORY.

Wife Sought Law When She Missed Husband and Child at Home But Soon Learned Her Mistake.

Mrs. Marshall Myers caused no little excitement in Squire Clark's office last night when she came in and announced that her husband had disappeared, taking with him their young child. Mrs. Myers was greatly excited and wanted law the worst kind of a way. An information charging assault and battery was sworn out, Mrs. Myers having, it is alleged, abused his wife. Constable J. W. Mitchell started out on the trail. Other police were notified and took up the chase.

They all went in every direction but the right one. None thought of going to the Myers home. When Mrs. Myers returned from the Squire's office she found her husband waiting for her. "Where were you?" she demanded.

"Down at the store buying something to eat," was his reply.

Mrs. Myers then bent it back to the Squire's office, paid the costs and withdrew the information. The two have not been getting along well lately, but they made up last night. The kidnapping charge fell flat as Myers had only taken the baby to the store with him.

A RAILROAD MAN
TAKES HIS LIFE.

F. R. Price, Southwest Flagman, Shoots Himself in Head at Greensburg.

WELL KNOWN IN CONNELLSVILLE

Suicide Committed in Bed at His Own Home at an Early Hour This Morning—Young Wife is Prostrated Over Husband's Death.

Alone in his bedroom, F. R. Price, flagman on the Southwest branch local freight running between Greensburg and Fairbairn, shot and killed himself at his home in Greensburg this morning. The suicide occurred about 2 o'clock and the young wife and little daughter are almost distracted over the death of husband and father. What Price's motive in taking his own life could have been is not known.

Price was about 35 years of age. He has lived in the old Turkey building, corner of Depot and Outman street, Greensburg, for the past two months. He also owned the pool room and had a man employed to run it. He was of a very quiet disposition and never had much to say. He was at work yesterday as usual on his run and arrived home last night from Fairbairn at 5 o'clock. He was about during the evening and retired about the usual time. He slept in a room at the front of the house by himself, and his wife and little daughter and the hired girl occupied a room adjoining. The shot awoke them and they rushed to his room to find him dying. Two roomers, Richard Davis and C. E. Huns, who were in the house asleep, were called and Dr. Wentz, who lives next door, was also called. The bullet took effect in the right temple. Price must have died instantly. He bled freely and the bad clothing which was scarcely disturbed was saturated.

Price was well known in Connellsville, running through here every day.

A MURDER MYSTERY
IN LONG ISLAND

Body of Young Woman Found Thought to Be Nurse Missing One Year.

United Press Telegram.

ISLIP, L. I., Oct. 19.—Coroner Savage began an investigation today following the finding of the skeleton of a young woman partly charred by fire in the underbrush near here late yesterday. The body had been there about a year, it is believed. The coroner is satisfied it is a murder. The woman had been of slender build and the clothing near the skeleton was of excellent quality. A veil bore the name "Schwartz." A gold bracelet still clinging to the wrist of the skeleton and a necklace and heart-shaped locket were near.

Friends of May Smith, a nurse at the Manhattan Hospital, who disappeared about a year ago, are investigating. The Smith girl was supposed to be the fiancée of Gustav Schwartz, now held in jail in connection with the killing of Irving Nelson, who was shot in the back while returning from the hospital a year ago. The Smith girl disappeared then, but no search was made.

ROCKS DENIES STORY THAT WORK WAS STOPPED

On New Coke Plant of Sunshine Coal & Coke Company at High House.

Francis Rocks, president of the Sunshine Coal & Coke Company, is emphatic in his denial of the story published in a Uniontown paper to the effect that he has had difficulty or that an injunction was issued preventing him from constructing his new coke plant at High House.

Mr. Rocks stated today that he has never had any difficulty with the Erie Coke Company nor has he been antagonistic to it in any way. He said: "I own the surface and the coal at that place and I can build coke ovens if I want to. I can see any way for anyone to prevent me from building ovens. The whole story as published in the paper was wrong and I have so informed its manager. One thing that I want to make most emphatically is that I have made millions of tons of coke, but I never cooked a pound of Sewickley coal in my life. I might further say that Sewickley coal does not make coke of the Connellsville variety and the published story that I am opening the Sewickley vein does me considerable injury."

The facts of the matter is that I changed a few workmen from one quarry to another. Anding it cheaper and easier to get done. These workmen not securing employment at the other place drew upon their indignation and an over-hasty newspaper man did not inquire into the story. It would not have taken five minutes to verify the story."

He fell twenty feet, landing on the point of a sharp branch which projected at an angle from the trunk, near the root of the tree. The impact drove the branch into the lad's abdomen and he hung there, screaming in agony. His little companions were unable to release him but their cries brought several men to the wounded lad's aid.

Ruberoid Roofing

The Modern Roofing Material.

A building covered with Ruberoid Roofing 17 years ago is still in excellent condition with no signs of wear or a leak. Nothing else should be required to convince anyone that Ruberoid is the practical roofing material of the present day.

Ruberoid Roofing is a combination of high grade waterproof acid and fire resisting ingredients. There is no rubber in Ruberoid, no tar, no paper, no asbestos. It is not an asphalt roofing. It is tasteless and odorless and can be used on a roof from which drinking water is conserved. Ruberoid is positively fire resisting. Hot coals thrown upon Ruberoid roofing will not set fire to it nor to the roofing boards beneath it. It is a non-conductor of heat keeping the heat out in warm weather and retaining the heat within during the cold weather.

A hundred different good things may be said of Ruberoid Roofing and not a single fault can be found with it. No roofing has ever been made that will out wear it. Ask us to show you Ruberoid Roofing and let us tell you more of its merits.

TUESDAY EVENING, OCT 19, 1909.

THE FARMER PROTECTED BY THE REVISED TARIFF.

It has been stated by veteran politicians that the rural voter is better informed on the issues pending in a campaign; that he devotes greater and more painstaking thought to the things that must be settled at the polls than his city brother. That is why an overwhelming majority of the farmers of this country vote the Republican ticket. They know that under Democratic administration they have not been prosperous and that under Republican administration they have been. It is not necessary to remind any farmer of the dismal years of Democratic tariff legislation. This year there are more potent reasons than ever before for the farmer's support of the Republican party. No other class of persons in the United States is so prosperous as they are. Their prosperity during the return of the Republican party to power twenty years ago has been astounding. The Agricultural Department at Washington has estimated that their balance of trade during that period has increased from an annual average of $234,000,000 to $111,000,000 or about 76 per cent. The experts in Washington say that this year the value of all farm products in this country will be over $8,000,000,000. The farmers have plenty of money because they find a ready market for their crops, and the things they raise have advanced in price faster than the value of the things they buy.

The new Republican tariff law insures a continuance of prosperity in the agricultural districts. It has restored industrial and commercial activity; the millions of wage earners of the United States will have regular employment and they will have the money to buy what the farmers produce. More than that the Payne law provides duties on the products of the farm. The duty on corn is fifteen cents a bushel; on wheat twenty-five cents a bushel; on oats it is fifteen cents a bushel, and on barley thirty cents a bushel. On onions the duty is forty cents a bushel and on cabbage it is two cents a head. The farmer is perfectly satisfied with the new tariff rates because everything he produces is included in the protection of the agricultural schedule. He has absolutely nothing to fear from competition of the foreigner.

This will be a big year for the Pennsylvania farmer. He is assured of a bumper crop and good prices. The industrial supremacy of the Keystone State and its tremendous mining interests overshadow its agricultural importance. Many Pennsylvanians do not realize that this State is one of the large wheat growing States. This year, according to the estimates, Pennsylvania will yield three times as much wheat as Oklahoma, twice as much as Oregon and four times as much as Iowa. All listed as large wheat producers. In this State are 225,000 farms and many farmers do not raise wheat.

The duty of the Pennsylvania farmer this year is perfectly clear. He should talk for the Republican ticket until November 2nd and then vote for it. He demanded protective duties on farm products and got them from the Republican party. No other American producer was so well cared for in the revision of the tariff. Naturally, the farmers of Pennsylvania are grateful for what was done for them at Washington and they are anxious to give expression to their appreciation. They can do this in an emphatic manner on November 2nd.

Pennsylvania is the principal beneficiary under the new tariff system, and it should endorse the work of the Republican party in the Sixty-first Congress with an unprecedented majority for the Republican ticket. Every farmer in the State should be included in such a majority.

LET'S ALL HAVE A MERRY HALLOWE'EN.

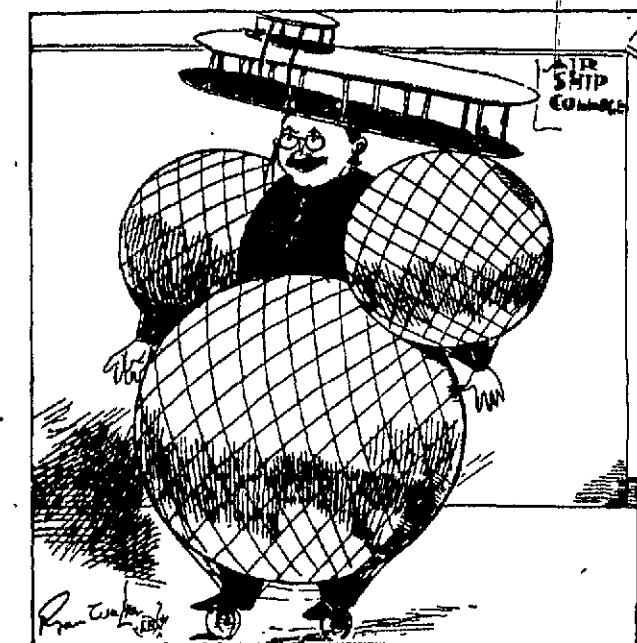

A number of the neighboring towns are arranging for Halloween celebrations of the safe and sane and withal joyous character, mingling merriment among all the people and eschewing malicious and senseless destruction of property.

Scottdale and Brownsville are lining up for antiquated and open merry-making under the protection and encouragement of the borough authorities. Conneltsville should follow suit. Let us make Halloween a jolly old evening with no sore spots.

THE COMMUNITY OF COKE REGION RAILROADS.

A few years ago the haughty railroad interests floutly refused to develop the three-county coal field, because they said there was more coal opened up than there was a market for. But things are different now and the railroad managers are not so dictatorial. Their wings have been clipped, their shrewish tempers have been tamed, they have become more nearly ideal servants of the people than they have ever been in transportation's history.

The population of railroads inaugurated by the Big Stick and continued by the Broad Smile has been immediately and directly responsible for this happy change, but it has not yet directly destroyed that subtle and silent condition known in business parlance as the railway Community of Interest. We read that the Monongahela railroad is to be extended to Point Marion in one direction and through Greene county toward Wheeling in another. This railway is the joint property of the Pennsylvania and Lake Erie railway systems. Its extensions will develop the Greene county coal fields and those up the Monongahela river, and connect them all with the Baltimore & Ohio railroad.

The Conneltsville coke region Community of Interest is apparently just as much alive as it was a decade ago when it openly apportioned the coke business and eliminated competition in its transportation.

The baseball editor of the esteemed Uniontown Herald is writing letters to himself, by himself and of himself, with a little of the Courier on the side. Without going into details it is sufficient to say that the Courier is the only Fayette county paper that got out a baseball extra for every game of the World's Championship Series with a full telegraph press service right from the field. The Herald is an enterprising paper, but there is at least one other in Fayette county, and it is not in the habit of following, either.

The West Penna Railway Company may look just like a streak of steel through the town, but it is a big factor in our prosperity.

Pastor Burgess will go down in history with his name attached to deathless books if he is not careful.

The Conneltsville Exposition is a decided success. It will grow. Within the next few years we will doubtless have twelve excursions from Uniontown and other similar towns to the Conneltsville Exposition to see the interesting exhibits and hear Sousa's band play extraordinary airs. Conneltsville is not going backward as some of its neighbors have hoped. It's just getting ready to run a Marathon race for growth and prosperity.

Conneltsville is offered a tack factory and a silk mill. Things seem to be coming our way. We ought to nail 'em.

The National Pike is no place for horses which have not been broken to the clatter of the whizz-wagons.

Pennsylvania is free from debt. The Keystone State does not owe a dollar. Yet Senator La Follette recently announced that Pennsylvania had been bankrupted by Republican booms. The little bankrupt from Iowa wasn't well posted on Pennsylvania affairs.

Bad men are respectfully warned that it costs money to try to shoot up Conneltsville.

Love sometimes sneaks out of the window to hunt Adelines without waiting for poverty to come in at the door and make things unpleasant.

Charleroi is threatened with a milk strike because the Farmers Council insists on the milkmen furnishing good milk. The milkmen in that isolated mud town demand that they be permitted to water it. The State Department of Health should have something to say to the Charleroi milkmen.

Enterprise is tackling toward Conneltsville. Give her good anchorage.

The Burgess cannot grant a marriage license nor a liquor license, but he could perhaps do both with satisfaction if his duty extended thereto.

There is an ice-cream-and-nuts element which is determined to eliminate the tobacco-chewer by making it impossible for him to spit. While we do not as a rule subscribe to such infamous ryanism, we have no doubt the movement will have the sympathy and support of the feminine world.

The Conneltsville High School boys easily defeated the Uniontown team at football. Uniontown never won any athletic games save with hired men.

It's bad enough to be wrong in an argument, but it is infinitely worse to have to admit it.

Really different when we say that Walk-Over Shoes are "different." We do not make that claim and lay it to a mysterious something and expect you to believe it. Those patterns are distinctive and they make Walk-Over a shoe that is really "different."

FOR HALLOWE'EN AT SCOTSDALE.

Committee Heads Named for Celebration in the Mill Town.

NOW IS THE TIME TO GET BUSY

Boston Candy Kitchen Stock Goes to William W. Seaman for $325—Protected Home Circle Will Have An Entertainment.

SCOTSDALE, Oct. 19.—The chairman of the committees which will have charge of the plans for the celebration have been named, and they will be expected to get to work and each appoint the members of the committee to assist them in the work of getting up another big celebration, such as has crowded the town on previous Halloween evenings. William Ferguson is chairman and Geo. P. Shupe secretary of the General Committee. Frank Parker will be chief marshal and will direct the committee having in hand the arrangements for the parade, which is a big feature of the evening. A. J. Geyer will have in charge the work of securing places for the best and most unique features of the parade. S. R. Rutherford will be at the head of the committee on arrangements. Fred M. Lawolly will be chairman of the decorating committee and Edward Anderson will have the advertising committee in charge. No finance committee has been appointed, but this will be done later. There is but a comparatively small amount of cash needed for this sort of a celebration, as the past celebrations have been profitable of a great deal of amusement, and all the surrounding towns send large delegations to witness, and take part in the fun. The celebration has been marked in lessening or rather doing away altogether with the old-fashioned element of celebration in the destruction of property, and the doing of outlandish things so old that they lack any degree of newness or novelty.

Bought Boston Candy Kitchen.
James M. Kennell yesterday afternoon concluded the sale of assets for George Peter Stutts, bankrupt, who did business as the Boston Candy Kitchen, at Broadway and Pittsburg streets. Leslie A. Howard, the attorney for the bankrupt, was present and announced the $300 worth of goods which the bankrupt under his lights withheld; and Auctioneer A. R. Haesler then proceeded to sell the balance of the stock, which included a large soda fountain. The best bidder was William W. Seaman, better known as "Foggy Bill," who bought the stock for $325. Whether he will conduct a store there has not been decided. L. F. Miller, the landlord, will select a tenant sometime soon.

Has a Baby Girl.
James R. Dickerhoff was absent from his job at the machine shop of the U. S. East Iron Pipe & Foundry Company yesterday and wherever he was seen he was preceded by a glow something like a searchlight, which his friends declare emanated from the smile he wore over the arrival of a daughter at his house on Sunday.

Beautifying a School House.
D. S. Cotton, teacher of the Buena Vista school, Fayette county, was in town yesterday selecting a lot of pictures at O. S. Weaver's for the beautifying of the Buena Vista school house. Nearly all the country schools have a fine collection of pictures.

An Illustrated Lecture.
Invitations have been issued for an entertainment consisting of illustrated scenes and interesting views to be given by Dr. R. G. Baird, Superintendent of Deputies under the auspices of the Protected Home Circle, in the Elmer & Graft room adjoining the postoffice on Thursday evening. The admission will be by invitation only.

Heavy Fog and Frost.
There was a heavy frost last night, and this morning a cloud of fog arose that was uncomfortable and dangerous since one could not see the distance across a street. The trains and street cars were both late this morning on this account, the fog making slow and very careful riding necessary.

Home From Motor Trip.
Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Frangle arrived home Sunday evening from a motor trip which they took as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Lane of Greensburg to Buffalo, across New York to Albany and then through the Delaware Water Gap and home by way of Cumberland and Uniontown.

Disciples Attend Communion.
All but one of the official members and several others of the congregation of the Disciple Church of Scottdale attended the great communion services in Pittsburg on Sunday. It was a great gathering of the Disciples of Christ and the local church had a large representation.

NEW FACTORY STARTS.

New Jeannette Window House Will Make Glass at Point Marion.

The new window house built by the Jeannette company at Point Marion started Monday. It is a 30-blower tank and the workmen were on the ground ready for the start.

The Jeannette is one of the best companies in the glass business and the success already attributed by it is expected to be duplicated in the new factory.

The House Behind the Advertisement

—The people of Western Pennsylvania have learned that what "Aaron says" is invariably true.

—What a splendid asset for a business house to carry from year to year.

—It does away with all worry and doubt, and fear that harass one as a rule when buying furniture, carpets, rugs or household goods of whatever description.

—Every word we utter in an advertisement is a direct and binding contract with the person who reads it.

—You may call upon us for fulfillment at any hour of a year, any day of any month, any month in any year.

—That's our foundation.

—That's the "Aaron way."

—The law, unfortunately, places little or no restriction on advertisements. Some day it will.

—Until that day you will always have to consider the house behind the advertisement that you read, rather than the advertisement itself.

—Do this and you will save yourself many a vain regret.

Sincerely yours,

Coming Attractions at the Theatres.

THE SOISSON.

A Play Worth Seeing.

"The Climax," Joseph M. Weber's comedy of modern life, will be at the Soisson Theatre Wednesday, October 20, matinee and night.

The little girl who lost her voice, such is the sobriquet of Adeline, the heroine in Joseph M. Weber's brilliant New York success, "The Climax," a stirring story of Bohemian life by Edward Locke, with incidental music by Joseph Carl Brill, which will appear at the Soisson Theatre matinee and night. The author is new in theatrical conceptions. He has worked out his theme with humor and imagination, with a delicacy of poetic fancy with truth to the demands of reasonableness in character and situations, and with dramatic picturesqueness and structural effectiveness. There will be no attraction seen here this season better worth seeing in its combination of qualities that make up for pure enjoyment.

"The Climax" is made up of only four characters and the entire action takes place at the Bohemian apartments of Luigi Gaifanti in New York. Adeline Von Liagn comes to Luigi, a voice cultist, and lives with him and his son, Pietro, a young musician of great promise. Adeline is beloved by John Raymond, a young doctor, who endeavors to persuade her to relinquish her love for art for his devotion, but she steadfastly refuses. A slight operation upon her vocal chords is found necessary, and to further his own ends and to obtain his heart's desire, the doctor, by mental suggestion, wills that she shall be unable to sing upon her recovery from the ordeal. Pietro also loves Adeline, and he has written and composed "The Song of the Soul," inspired by Adeline, but when she tries to sing this song her voice fails her completely. This magic note of the play is one that makes the heart swell up and seek relief in tears. Believing that she can no longer become a great singer, she agrees to wed the doctor, and in the pleasant excitement preceding her marriage, she discovers that she has regained her voice, and "all is well that ends well." A splendid cast of metropolitan players will be seen in the different roles.

The Reading, Pa. Times, speaks as follows of the Moulin Rouge Girls that appear at the Casino tonight. "The Moulin Rouge Girls gave a very good, up to date burlesque entertainment last night at the Academy, and the audience showed their appreciation by loud outbursts of laughter and frequent applause. They repeat their performance this afternoon and evening."

INDUSTRIAL FAIR PROMISES SUCCESS.

Display of Exhibits in the Various Booths Are Attractive.

IT WILL CONTINUE ALL WEEK

Attendance at the Opening Was Good. Merchants and Manufacturing Firms in Connellsville Have Displays.

There is some class to that industrial fair being held in the Armory under the auspices of the United Presbyterian Church. The fair was formally opened last evening with a band concert and an address by Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen. Both were brief, but greatly enjoyed. Judge Van Swearingen took occasion, in his opening address, to sound a few words of warning to misanthropic work. The funds derived from the fair are to be devoted to missionary work, and Judge Van Swearingen declared that some of this, at least, should be kept at home. He declared the statement made before the Christian Church convention that "we are treating the heathen in foreign lands better than we are our neighbors at home," is worthy of serious thought.

Rev. B. F. White, pastor of the church, announced that the proceeds of the fair will be devoted towards missionary work in Connellsville and in America.

Prof. H. C. Bell of the South Side school made a few extemporaneous remarks concerning the school work and exhibit at the fair, after which the visitors got down to business and went over the various attractions.

There is too much at the fair to go into details. It takes an hour or two to see all there is to see, and even then some things are overlooked.

There are over 300 pieces of fancy work in case of the upstairs room, some possessing great value. The card collection and antiques are also worthy of a solid hour's inspection. There is everything under the sun in the antique line, some of them more than 300 years old.

The exhibit of the West Penn Railway and Electric Companies is the banner one of the lot. Superintendent J. W. Brown has a big map of the coke region, with the towns marked by little electric lights. This map also gives some information with which few people were familiar. It is not generally known that the company pays out over $500,000 annually to its employees in the coke region; that it has spent $400,000 on improvements in the past 18 months, and that from the power house above town it operates over 200 miles of trolley lines and lights 37 towns. C. I. Cotton has charge of the electric company's display of domestic utensils and electric lights.

Borough Engineer J. B. Hogg's booth was not wholly completed. He will have an interesting exhibit of maps, with demonstrations in map making. He has on exhibition a map of Fayette county made by County Surveyor Freeman Lewis in 1837. Mr. Lewis' survey rank in importance with those of the late A. J. Gilmore when disputed titles are in litigation.

J. W. Ward takes flash light photographs and his booth attracted considerable attention. Two easy places to rest are the booths of the Connellsville Planing Mill Company and William Sellers, the steam fitting engineer.

DAWSON WEDDING.

Miss Ida Sommers Becomes Bride of Charles Held.

DAWSON, Oct. 18.—(Special).—Miss Ida Sommers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sommers, of Dawson, and Charles Held, of Johnstown, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Held, of that place, were united in marriage this morning at 7 o'clock by nuptial high mass. The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Father Brody of the Sacred Heart Church and was witnessed by hosts of relatives and friends.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ethel Maple, and the groom by his brother, John Held, of Johnstown. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride. The bride has been employed in the Bell telephone office at Dawson for a number of years, and is well known and has a host of friends. The groom comes from a very well known family in Johnstown and is employed by the Pittsburgh Brewing Company at that place. Mr. and Mrs. Held left on No. 8 for Buffalo and Niagara Falls and will be at home at Johnstown after November 1.

CHAMPIONS' RECEPTION.

Pittsburgh Honored Its Winning Baseball Team Last Night.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 18.—Pittsburgh went mad in a frenzy of jubilation last night. In a riot of dancing forms, waving hats, red fire and cheering, an ovation such as seldom has been accorded by a rejoicing people to victors in any line of endeavor was extended to members of the baseball team which won the world's championship. Twenty thousand appreciatively happy "fans" sent a mighty shout as the band of the parade entered Forbes Field. Above rockets and bombs burst in scintillating showers and aerial thunder. Red fire lighted stands and field.

Spectators, banded in many ranks, viewed marchers along the entire route from Fifth and Liberty avenues to the scene of many of the past summer's triumphs. Only once before in the city's history has such interest in a phrase been shown—that was Pittsburgh day of the semi-centennial celebration last year.

At Forbes Field the world's champions were presented with their share of the prize money by Mayor Magee.

HOLDS UP PASSENGERS

Negro Goes Through Train Forcing All to Pay Tribute.

New Orleans, Oct. 18.—Robert Griggs, a negro, arose from his seat in the Jim Crow car of the Great Northern train, pulled a brace of guns and forced every negro in the car to pay tribute to him. Then he entered the white man's car behind, demanded that persons throw up their hands and band over their valuables.

Thomas Leach, conductor of the train, grappled with the negro, then ten or more white men jumped on the robber. He managed to keep his revolver until he had shot the conductor, Deputy Sheriff Trapaglier and G. H. Robinson. This started a panic and the negro broke away from the whites, jumped from the train and started to run for a pine thicket. Twenty guns were leveled on him and scores of bullets hissed about his head. He fell wounded.

TYRUS SAFE FOR A WHILE

Governor Harmon's Absence Causes Delay in Requisition Papers.

Cleveland, Oct. 18.—Ty Cobb is safe from arrest for a time, though Cuyahoga county officials have issued papers calling for his apprehension on one indictment returned last week, charging him with cutting to wound, as a result of his alleged attack on Night Watchman George Stanfield of the Hotel Euclid.

Former Mayor McKinnon, Cobb's counsel, offered to produce Cobb here Thursday without process, but his offer was rejected. Now the sheriff has found that Governor Harmon is in the south on a tour which is to last until next Friday and that it is impossible in his absence from Ohio to obtain requisition papers.

HEAD STILL MISSING

All Other Portions of Murdered Girl in Hands of Police.

Fall River, Mass., Oct. 18.—The box in which the decapitated head of the discovered torso of the girl who figures in the Tiverton murder mystery was transported from the place where the body was cut has been found by Deputy Sheriff King of Newport on the Hamby farm some distance from the place where other searchers had made finds.

Mrs. Lamoureux identified as those worn by her niece, Miss St. Jean, the coronet and a skirt which were found several days ago at the end of Bay street. The police believe that the head, the one means of positive identification of the mutilated body, lies at the bottom of Mount Hope bay.

HEARING GRAFT CASES

Trial of Youngstown Men Begin This Morning.

Youngstown, O., Oct. 18.—The trial of the graft cases resulting from the investigations of a recent special grand jury was started this morning, when Warren H. Hale, ex-county commissioner, was called to the bar on a charge of soliciting bribes. There are three counts against him.

The fifteen other men indicted by the grand jury will be tried as rapidly as possible. It is said that the Citizens' Improvement society, which dug up evidence against the men under indictment, is continuing its work and that detectives are at work on other cases.

DICKINSON BOOMED FOR SENATOR.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 18.—A senatorial boom has been launched by friends of Secretary of War J. M. Dickinson, who is urged as successor to United States Senator James B. Frazier. Although it is stated positively that Mr. Dickinson has not been consulted in the matter, Luke Lea, candidate for governor, declares the secretary will state his views at the proper time.

Hearst Opens Up on Bannard. New York, Oct. 18.—William R. Hearst opened up on Mr. Bannard, the Republican candidate for mayor, for the first time last night. At four meetings in Harlem and the Bronx he told 8,000 persons that Mr. Bannard was the appointed and anointed candidate of the noble order of Woodruffians, a Knight of the Cuckered Waistcoats.

Suicide as a Result of Debt. Jamestown, N. Y., Oct. 18.—Walter A. Hedges, twenty-five years old, a traveling salesman of this city, committed suicide by taking poison because he was unable to meet financial obligations.

How She May Have the Benefit of Expert Facial Massage Free.

Every woman reader will be interested in an ingenious invention called the Harlan Beauty Cup, which, when used with Crown Cream, offers a decided improvement over the old style hand massage method. Crown Cream is the leading massage cream and skin food on the American market, and is a beautifier in the truest sense of the word. Many women use it without massage, because it is not only a wonderful healing and cleansing preparation, but it gives many of the best effects of massage without any manipulation. It is especially fine for use where there are blotches, pimples or other blemishes on the face, and for the eradication of wrinkles.

Used in connection with the Beauty Cup, the skin is given new vigor, and the soft, velvety appearance of youth is quickly restored and retained. Crown Cream is sold everywhere for five a jar, which is the price asked for face cream of the ordinary sort, none of which can equal the special merit of Crown Cream. The Harlan Beauty Cup also sells for 50c. Lose no time in securing these beauty aids from your dealer, and if he is not supplied, they will be sent prepaid, upon receipt of price, by the Harlan Mfg. Co., Toledo, O.
